Artist Bio

My name is Teresa Cole Rogers. I live in Wilmington NC. I am a retired Elementary Visual Art Teacher. I graduated from East Carolina University School of Art. Art has always been a part of my life as far back as I can remember. I recently found my coloring book from kindergarten and apparently I wanted my own designs to color as I found it to be full of extra shapes and objects.

The Art World has always spoken to me. To see the World visually and experience it through your senses, especially your sight is beyond words at times. This is what Trees do for me as an Artist, they speak to me and leave me without the words to describe them at times.

The trees are the foundations for the leaves and foliage that grows upon them. The roots are the strength and the stability for the trees while allowing the growth within their branches.

Art can invoke such a passion and immense feeling in the viewer that gazes upon it. My hope as an Artist is to capture your senses, make you feel as though you can feel the textural bark, hear the crispness of the leaves, totally immerse yourself into the Nature of each piece and what it represents.
